On The Cover:

Over the years the Mendon Historical Society has been given the opportunity to share the story of a talented artist Doris Daniels Cox who called Mendon her home. She made many contributions to our community and shared her talents by teaching young students as well as becoming an instrumental founder of the Blackstone Valley Art Association. She helped bring art to rural communities fostering an appreciation for the arts.

We are honored to have several of her works in our museum collection and extend our thanks to her family for sharing her story with us.
